- There is no electricity or drinking water on Cow Island. Campers must bring their own drinks and snacks as well as adequate amounts of water (at least 1L), a hat, sunscreen and lifejacket. Campers will be provided with two small snacks each day. Please us know if you would like your child to opt out of snack.
- This water-access only camp is run by teen counsellors. Parents/guardians are responsible for arranging transportation to and from the island. Children will be supervised when swimming and while on Cow Island, but the BRLA can take no responsibility for injury however caused.
- The volunteer day camp coordinator (adult) will provide support to counsellors but will not be present everyday on Cow Island. Arrangements can be made to meet with the camp coordinator during the week.

I understand that photographs and videos taken of program participants, staff may be used for promotional purposes (including BRLA website) and I hereby consent to such use by the BRLA.
